

Things To Do in Portland

Sitting on the northwestern border of Oregon in the Pacific Northwest region of the United States, Portland is known for the vibrancy and uniqueness of its many neighborhoods, each with a distinct sense of place, and—in quirky Portland fashion — spread across six so-called "quadrants." — Travel Portland

Portland Art Museum ($)	Within walking distance of the Portland Marriott Waterfront, one of the nation's best art museums.
Washington Park	Free shuttle throughout the park with stops at each attraction
Oregon Zoo ($)	Meet Tula-Tu, the newest addition to the Zoo's Asian elephant herd. Purchase tickets online before going!
World Forestry Center ($)	Forest-focused museum with interactive exhibits
Portland Japanese Garden ($)	Offering year-round serenity at a woodland sanctuary in northwest Portland inspired by the flora and fauna of Japan.
International Rose Garden (Free)	Past peak blossoms, it's a century-old garden with 10,000 rose bushes
Hoyt Arboretum	A "living museum of trees" with trails to explore its 2,300 species of trees and shrubs
Pittock Mansion ($ or free)	Picture-perfect views of the city, hiking trails, and a tour of the historic Portland mansion
Forest Park	70 miles of trails for hiking, runners, and equestrian
Hopscotch ($)	Theme Park of immersive art exhibits with local snacks & drinks for sale
Powell's City of Books	Large bookstore open 365 days a year
Lan Su Chinese Gardens ($)	Ming Dynasty-style Garden in Portland's historic Chinatown
Portland Saturday Market	Large out arts-and-crafts fair
Birdie Time Pub ($)	Indoor mini-golf and sports bar
Guardian Games	Large game store with space to try out games and a bar